

TEXAS ACE OBJECTIVES

The 21st Century Community Learning Center's program, called Texas Afterschool Centers on Education (ACE), is intended to improve the following outcomes for students:

- Academic Performance
- Attendance - Behavior
- Promotion rates
- Graduation rate

These objectives are specifically aligned with the goal of the Texas Education Agency (TEA) to ensure that all students are college and career ready and each ACE program should articulate how they can help contribute to meeting these objectives.